Oral History Interview Agreement

This Interview Agreement is made and entered into by the Interviewer(s), and the Interviewee(s),

Interviewee(s) agrees to participate in a series of tape-recorded interviews with the Interviewer(s) named above. This Agreement relates to any and all materials originating from the interviews, namely the tape recordings of the interviews, any transcripts or other written manuscripts prepared from or using the tapes, or any images that might be used during the interview or that were created during the interview.

In consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions, and terms set forth below, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) understand that the copy of the interview in the possession of the interviewer is his or her property, and will be available in its entirety to researchers and the general public.
2. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) irrevocably assigns to the interviewer all his or her copyright, title, and interest in this material.
3. By virtue of this assignment, the interviewer will have the right to use this material for any research, education, advertising, publications, and may be used in print or internet publications, or other purpose.
4. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) acknowledges that he or she will receive no remuneration or compensation for either his or her participation in the interviews or for the rights assigned hereunder.
5. I understand that any photographs copied will become available to researchers, and may be used for education, advertising, publications, and may be used in print or internet publications. I understand that I waive all title and rights, so far as I possess them, to the image(s) described and to any future prints or copies produced from it/them or any profits gained from the sale of prints or other reproductions of these images.
